Hypocrisy Charge Is Hurlled at President In Bitterest Speech of Campaign By Col. Roosevelt

Colonel Says Woodrow Wilson Day Should Also Be Day for Worshipping Shame and Humiliation.

CHARGES COWARDICE, DISHONOR, TO WILSON

"If We Should Enter Next War, We Should Enter This," Says T. R. Charging Wilson With Insincerity.

(By Review Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Theodore Roosevelt, in an address at the Brooklyn Academy of Music to-night, declared that if today is what "our Democratic friends" call "Wilson Day" it should be "appointed a day of fasting and humiliation."
"THREE YEARS OF SHAME"
"For during the past three years," he went on, "the people of the United States have eaten the bitter bread of shame and trod the paths of dishonor under the leadership of Mr. Wilson."
The Colonel directed most of his attack against the recent declaration of Mr. Wilson that the present was the last great world war that the United States can keep out of.
"Wilson Violates Word."
"We never have had any candidate for so high an office who was so utterly indifferent to the reversal of all his professed convictions or principles and, above all, so indelicate to the flat contradiction between his word and his acts on almost every issue of real importance before the people," he said.

Is Wilson Hypocrite?
After quoting the President's words in regards to this country and the next war, Mr. Roosevelt said that "never have we had a greater degree of insincerity and hypocrisy than is contained in such a plea for re-election by the President, who has, himself, practiced the coldest and most selfish neutrality when all these things that he in the abstract condemns were in the concrete committed at the expense of Belgium and of the Armenians and the Syrian Christians."
Taking up the President's "appeal for support on the ground that he has kept us out of war," Mr. Roosevelt declared that if it was just to keep out of the present war, then it would be just in the future to keep out of all similar wars, and "if the President, on the other hand, is right in saying that we never shall keep out of any such wars in the future, then he condemns himself for keeping out of this war."

Act of Cowardice?
"You say, Mr. Wilson, that hereafter America must exert her whole force, moral and physical, throughout the round globe if the fundamental rights of humanity are invaded," Colonel Roosevelt said. "Do you know that it is object cowardice to say that this must be done hereafter when you do not dare do it now?"

Says Wilson "Chatters."
"If you mean what you say as the future, then you must mean precisely and exactly that this is your duty in the present. Do it now, Mr. President. It is your sheer hypocrisy to chatter ten days before election as to what ought to be done in the future, when throughout your whole term of office you have failed in the present to do what you now say is your duty." If the President's words can mean anything, the Colonel continued, "and never again are we to be neutral—then he is inexcusable in having kept us so shamefully unprepared."

GEN. BELL DENIES SMUGGLING STORY

(By Review Leased Wire)
EL PASO, Oct. 28.—When shown the statement of Luis Cabrera, Mexican peace commissioner, referring to ammunition smuggling across the border, Brigadier General Geo. Bell, Jr., commander of the El Paso patrol district, declared that he did not think there was any smuggling being done across the border in his district.
"I am sure there is no extensive smuggling going on in this district," General Bell said.
"If there is any smuggling being done in a small way, Villa's men are getting no more ammunition across the line than are those employed by the Carranza government," he added.

MEXICO CHARGES U. S. WITH AIDING BANDITS TO GET GUNS

(By Review Leased Wire)
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 28.—That the Villista movement in Chihuahua has been able to continue because of facilities given the enemies of the constitutional government in the United States was the declaration of General Carranza in a statement he gave to the press today.

Complications Threaten
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—New complications with the Mexican defacto government threaten today as a result of a statement issued here through the Mexican information bureau and attributed to Luis Cabrera. It assails in sharp language American neutrality and the administration of immigration laws as regard Mexico. Mr. Cabrera is minister of finance in Carranza's cabinet and president of the Mexican commission now participating in the joint conference over border difficulties and there are indications that his criticisms will not be ignored at the state department.

While refusing to enter into any discussion of the statement at this time, administration officials characterized it as extraordinary.
It was said at the bureau that the statement had been obtained from Mr. Cabrera directly and was made public with his approval.

FAITHFUL HOUND GUARDS U. S. MAIL AND IS REWARDED

Postmaster General Annexes Masterless Canine to Post-office Force, and Gives Him Big Brass Collar.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The faithful work of "Sam," a stray dog, which guards bags of mail at Mount Carmel, Pa., was officially recognized today by the postoffice department. Within the next day or so the dog will have locked on his neck a heavy brass studded collar bearing a plate engraved with the words "U. S. Mail. Presented to Uncle Sam's Faithful Friend by Albert S. Burleson, Postmaster General, October 25, 1916."

U. S. TO ANSWER BRITISH DEFENSE OF BLACKLIST.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The next move of the United States in the controversy over the blacklist of American firms will not be determined until officials have had ample time to examine Great Britain's reply to the American note of July 28, protesting against it. The reply reached the state department today from the London embassy. Secretary Lansing to-night said he had not decided when it would be made public.
The note refuses the American contention which termed the blacklist "an arbitrary interference with neutral trade" but it is understood to offer methods of retaliation which may be available in some instances to lessen the rigors of interference.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 28.—The statement issued at Washington to-night that if he were elected president he would protect American rights on land and sea. "There must be with us as with our fathers," he added, "a willingness to sacrifice for the country that we love."

Hughes campaigned today among the farmers of northern New York. He spoke chiefly on Republican policies affecting agriculture, subordinating other campaign issues. The protective tariff, the "need for preparation to meet the competition of Europe after the war" and the Adamson law were the nominee's chief topics. Maintenance of American rights on land and sea he declared, was essential to all prosperity and progress.

He Doesn't Want War
"We shall accomplish nothing in this country unless we have the driving power of patriotic sentiment," he declared. "There is no future for a decadent people. We do not want war. I am amazed at the audacity of the assertion that a vote for me is a vote for war. I am a man devoted to peace. As I look forward to the future, there is nothing that I more keenly desire than the international organization which will tend to promote the peace of the world when this awful conflict is at an end."

Timid Talk Invites War
"You cannot hope to maintain your peace if you present to the world the spectacle of timid people that have forgotten the courage and indomitable spirit of the founders and preservers of this nation; a people that backs and backs and talks and talks and never stands. There is no peace for the United States with such a policy."

AITKEN WINS N. Y. CLASSIC AT 105 MILES AN HOUR

(By Review Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Johnny Aitken of Indianapolis, added to his laurels by winning the gold trophy race at 100 miles on the Sheepshead Bay track today. His time for the distance was 56 minutes, 37.65 seconds, establishing a new American record and is only seven seconds behind the world's record. Aitken's average speed was 105.86 miles an hour.
Frank Galvin finished second in 56 minutes, 45.31 seconds, and Howard Wilcox was third in 57 minutes 17.73 seconds. Aitken made only one stop when he went to the pit to change a tire.

MILITIA SLACKERS TO FACE COURT-MARTIAL.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28.—Organization of a court martial for trial of national guardsmen charged with failure to muster into the United States service has been completed. Private Claude E. Mleck, Fourth Texas Infantry, Waco, will be placed on trial Tuesday and on the outcome of this case will depend the fate of similar charges against others.

ARIZONA IN ON FINISH OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Extraordinary activity will mark the last week of the presidential campaign in the eastern states, in both the Republican and Democratic ranks. Democratic managers will continue to wage a vigorous campaign in every state in the west until election day but will concentrate their attacks on Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Oregon, Arizona, New Mexico and Nebraska. Every speaker of national prominence that is available will be sent into these states during the closing days of the campaign.

HUGHES SAYS TIMID TALK WONT GET PEACE

Writing of Notes and Sidestepping Only Invites War, Declares Republican Nominee Up New York State.

TAKES SACRIFICE TO PROTECT COUNTRY

Promises to Protect Americans Everywhere—Nominee Barely Escapes Being Run Down by Own Train.

(By Review Leased Wire)
OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Chas. E. Hughes told an audience to-night that if he were elected president he would protect American rights on land and sea. "There must be with us as with our fathers," he added, "a willingness to sacrifice for the country that we love."

Hughes campaigned today among the farmers of northern New York. He spoke chiefly on Republican policies affecting agriculture, subordinating other campaign issues. Nearly Hit By Train
Mr. Hughes was nearly run down by his own special train at Oswego. A nervous chauffeur drove the automobile containing the nominee past the landing at the railroad station directly across the tracks in front of the slowly approaching train. When the engine came into view it was less than thirty feet from the nominee's automobile. The chauffeur backed into the car behind and the engineer jammed on the emergency brakes. The combination prevented an accident. There was scramble for safety by the crowd, which were massed about the car and no one was injured.

LODGE 'EXPOSES' 'SCANDAL' IN WILSON'S CABINET

Offers Letter, Purporting to Show Wilson's Note to Germany on Lusitania Was Fourteen Karat Bluff.

"MEANT FOR HOME CONSUMPTION ONLY"

Letter Quotes Breckenridge as Saying Bryan Resigned Because Cabinet Insisted Bold Words Remain in Note.

(By Review Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Secretary McAdoo tonight declared to "without foundation" the charge by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, that President Wilson had added a postscript to the Lusitania note informing Germany that "strict accountability" need not be taken "seriously", which disappeared when cabinet members threatened to resign.

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Oct. 28.—The assertion that President Wilson, at the time the second Lusitania note was sent to Germany, wrote and afterward withdrew a postscript informing the German government that the contents of his previous note were not to be interpreted too seriously, was reiterated by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in a political address here to-night.

The senator added to his statement the announcement that information on the subject had come to him in a letter from Dr. Charles H. Bailey, of the Tufts Medical School, in which Secretary Breckenridge, former assistant secretary of war, was quoted as authority for the story of the alleged postscript.

Why Bryan Resigned.
Senator Lodge said the mystery of Bryan's resignation was explained by the letter from Dr. Bailey, according to Lodge, wrote the latter of a conversation he had with Breckenridge, in which the latter confirmed rumors that Wilson attached to his second German note a postscript that the contents of the note, that the United States would "omit no word or act", must not be interpreted too seriously, as it was meant for home consumption only, and that he (Wilson) was willing to put off settlement of the Lusitania case until after the war.

According to Breckenridge, Bailey's letter to Lodge said the whole cabinet of Wilson demanded the postscript to be withdrawn. This, it was said, was done, but not until the resignation of Bryan was in the hands of the President, for Bryan, the story goes, spread broadcast the news of the postscript, which it was said, was to be strictly confidential.

Senator Lodge said "this simply throws an additional light on the shifty character of this administration in its foreign policies. It is also of interest in other ways, as it shows Mr. Bryan's reasons for resignation."

FORD SPENDS $100,000 TO REELECT PRESIDENT WILSON

(By Review Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Henry Ford plans to spend approximately $100,000 for advertising throughout the country in the interest of President Wilson's campaign for re-election. It was announced here today by Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee of the Democratic national committee.
"We are depending on him," declared Mr. Morgenthau, "like we are depending on thousands of independent citizens who have the welfare of the country at heart."

Biggest Crowd Ever at Shadow Lawn Helps President Celebrate "Woodrow Wilson Day" Hears Him Speak.

SAYS HIS OPPONENTS TALK LIKE BRAGGARTS

He Pokes Fun at Republican "Issues," Answers Tariff Talk, 8-Hour Talk, and the After-War Bugaboo.

(By Review Leased Wire)
LONG BRANCH, N. J., Oct. 28.—That the opposition of his election "is scrupling at nothing" in statement or act or policy was the charge made by President Wilson in a speech at Shadow Lawn this afternoon to a throng that assembled for a joint celebration of New York Day and Woodrow Wilson Day.

"What are we to say," he asked "of the patriotism of men who take advantage of a crisis of the world when the fortunes of men hang in uncertain balance, when the peace of this great nation can be maintained only by the most thoughtful and considerate means to settle a question of power among themselves?"

Defiance, G. O. P. Method
Renewing his discussion of the foreign policies of the United States and speaking of the vocal element of the Republican party, the President declared:

"They prefer a peace that is produced by the methods of those who defy, of those who brag, of those who threaten in order to establish their prowess. They have forgotten their manners. They want a peace indeed, but they do not want a peace obtained as gentlemen obtain it, but only as braggarts obtain it."

Discusses Every Issue
In the course of his address, the President reviewed in detail the record of the Democratic party toward public questions, declared that most of the issues of the campaign proposed at the outset by the Republicans have disappeared; upheld the eight hour day for "everybody for whom it is possible," spoke of the "interesting gyrations" of the Republicans toward the tariff and replied to assertions of his opponents as to what will happen after the war.

Appeal to New York
Direct reference to the New York campaign was made by Mr. Wilson for the first time. He mentioned Samuel Seabury, candidate for governor, by name, and urged that a Democratic governor and United States senator should be elected.

The President did not read a speech prepared by him in advance. Although he used some of the thoughts contained in the prepared speech, he departed entirely from the words and injected many new ideas. The prepared speech was to be read at meetings arranged in many cities and towns in celebration of "Wilson Day."

SALAZAR REPORTED SPLIT WITH VILLA

EL PASO, Oct. 28.—Jose Ynez Salazar, Villa's second in command, and Badello Uribe, another of Villa's commanders, have broken with Villa and have gone to Chihuahua instead of accompanying Villa southeast from Santa Ysabel, according to El Democrito, the official Carranza daily paper published in Chihuahua City, copies of which reached the border today.

The dispute between Salazar and Villa is said to have arisen over the selection of a commander to take charge of one of Villa's bands.
United States government agents received reports tonight that Villa was fortified in Bachimba Canon, 32 miles south of Chihuahua City, where he was said to have the entrance to the canon guarded by artillery which had been captured from the Carranza forces. This report is doubted here as Villa is believed to be proceeding toward Santa Rosalia.
